

UNION4 PLANNING

Introduction

Union4 are excited to be recruiting a Planner or Senior Planner to join our Central London or Guildford team. We are a privately-owned town planning consultancy, involved in projects across the country, working in a variety of sectors including residential, commercial, regeneration and renewables, from small scale projects to large scale developments.

We are looking for a highly motivated individual to join the growing team. The role requires a knowledgeable and enthusiastic candidate with a proactive attitude and keen attention to detail. The successful candidate would be part of a growing team of innovative, professional and experienced Planners.

This is a full-time role, which will be flexible, but based in either our London or Guildford office, with travel across the UK for project meetings such as site visits or consultations where required.

The Role

- Undertaking research and reporting findings to the team.
- Assisting in the preparation and submission of planning applications.
- Undertaking site appraisals and providing advice to clients.
- Engaging with clients and other stakeholders in a positive and professional manner.

Requirements

- Public or Private Town Planning experience
- Strong understanding of the Planning System
- Chartered member of RTPI (or working towards membership)
- Bachelor's Degree in Town Planning, or related discipline.

Further Information

Job Type: Full Time Monday-Friday

Salary: Competitive

Work Location: Flexible working based in either our London or Guildford office.
